

BASIC BUSHCRAFT PART 2
With Dave Watson, Woodland Survival Crafts

Date: TUESDAY 7th & WEDNESDAY 8th APRIL 2009

Venue: Bell Heath Study Centre,
Qantry Lane, Belbroughton, West Midlands DY9 9UU

For those that have already attended Bushcraft Part 1, this course looks at consolidating previously learnt skills but also extends your bushcraft skills to other issues of working with and maintaining knives, springtime wild foods, water filtering, issues of safety and additional opportunities

(Book both Part 1 and Part 2 for £300 and save £60)

Target Audience:	Teachers, youth workers and leaders and anyone with an interest.
Time:	Each days training begins at 9.30 am and ends at approximately 5.00pm
Clothing:	Casual clothing including waterproofs
Refreshments:	Including tea and coffee – Lunch provided (please advise of any special dietary requirements)
Costs:	Course £240.00 + VAT Bed & Breakfast £25 per person per night	No. of places available:	15
Booking:	Please complete and return the attached reply slip. Any cancellation made less than 5 days prior to the course will be charged at full cost. Your school / organisation will be invoices on receipt of your application. For further details contact: Jane _abara on 01562 710227 or email juliet.m.higgins@birmingham.gov.uk For further details of all courses and facilities on offer through Outdoor Learning Service visit www.outdoorlearning.bham.org.uk

REPLY SLIP: Please return to: Fax back on (01562) 710143 or post to Bell Heath Study Centre, Qantry Lane, Belbroughton, DY9 9UU

I wish to attend the: BASIC BUSHCRAFT COURSE – Part 2
On: Tuesday 7th and Wednesday 8th April 2009

Name: _____ Contact No: _____

School/Organisation: _____

Signed: _____ (Head Teacher/Manager)