

Conference and other misc. outdoor learning related events

Schools' Paddlesport Symposium

15th-17th Nov. Glenridding, Ullswater, Cumbria. Hosted by Patterdale Hall Residential Adventure Learning Centre.

Come and enjoy a day of paddlesports adventures. Local river trips. Coaches sessions. Workshops. Fun race to finish.

Book via Steve Bradley – sjb@boltonschool.org.uk

Women's Leadership in Protected Landscapes – The Policy Edit

26th July (date changed). ONLINE. Free. Hosted by Anita Kerwin-Nye.

A virtual coffee - focused this time on the role of women's leadership and policy formation. Nature and landscapes; people and planet; food and farming - these are all at critical points.

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/womens-leadership-in-protected-landscapes-the-policy-edit-tickets-890967125657?aff=oddtcreator>

11th International Adventure Conference - "People, place and planet – new hospitalities"

9-11 Sept 2024. Knysna, South Africa.

<https://www.adventure-campus.com/iac2023/>

First International Research Symposium of Forest School

26-28 June 2024

Forest School Association with University of Liverpool. Liverpool.

This ground-breaking symposium, developed in collaboration with the University of Liverpool, marks a significant milestone in the evolution of Forest School education and research. It offers a unique opportunity for academics, researchers, practitioners, and enthusiasts to convene and delve into the interdisciplinary realms of Forest School theory, practice, and pedagogy.

<https://forestschoolassociation.org/forest-school-research-symposium/>