

5 reasons to apply for Professional Recognition

1.

Be confident that your knowledge, skills and education is benchmarked at a level matched to other professions.

2.

Demonstrate your experience to customers, employers and stakeholders, and the value you bring as an Outdoor Learning Professional.

3.

Be first in line for when we launch pathways to individual Chartered Professional in Outdoor Learning status.

4

Help us to help you – having a community of Professionals in Outdoor Learning supports our work towards becoming a Chartered Institute.

5.

Be recognised for your experience as an instructor, outdoor learning specialist, teacher manager, advisor, trainer, lecturer or researcher.

Bonus

It's free. Professional recognition is open to all current members of the Institute for Outdoor Learning (IOL), the Association of Heads of Outdoor Education Centres (AHOEC) or the Outdoor Education Advisors Panel (OEAP).
