

IOL Awards for teachers, leaders or instructors who wish to deliver high-quality bushcraft experiences with course participants

Bushcraft Competency Award	5 Units suitable for instructors working in outdoor centres or schools and delivering bushcraft skills sessions.	Edged tools – knives & saws; fire; water; tarp shelters & knots; campfire cooking.	Training (2 days) Consolidation (60 hours) Assessment (1/2 day)
Bushcraft Competency Certificate	8 Units suitable for teachers or instructors to plan and deliver progressive bushcraft learning experiences in their setting.	Bow drill; water; debris shelters; edged tools - knives & saws; fire; tree identification; natural navigation, cordage.	Training (3 days) Consolidation (120 hours) Assessment (1 day)
Bushcraft Competency Diploma	16 Units suitable for teachers or instructors to demonstrate a breadth of bushcraft knowledge and skills and deliver learning experiences in any setting.	14 compulsory units and 2 from 4 optional units covering the principal areas within bushcraft.	Hold IOL Bushcraft Competency Certificate Training (5 days) Consolidation (120 hours) Assessment (2 days)

Each award consists of a high-quality training course, consolidated experience, assessment of bushcraft competence, and certification by the IOL Awards Centre.

Developed by members of the IOL Bushcraft Professional Practice Group with a long-standing reputation for quality and innovation within the field of Bushcraft.

Find out more at: www.outdoor-learning.org