Outline Programme

The conference will be themed according to continents and move eastwards over the two half days. [Times given in GMT]

- There will be a choice of guest speakers and workshops.
- The event will be in English.
- Guest speakers will be recorded and workshop presentations will be collated. Both will be shared on the dedicated web page for ticket holders.
- There will follow a 'Book of Abstracts' to capture the conference outcomes and as a reference.

The fee is per person and gives access to all the conference, the recordings, website and resources.

Fee setting is on a not-for-profit basis and designed to be globally fair.

All speakers and presenters, and the organising committee, are giving their contributions free of charge.

The event is supported by the Institute for Outdoor Learning as part of its charitable aims to champion outdoor learning, and support organisations and individuals who use the outdoors to make a positive difference to others.

Check in to the web page for the latest updates.
